

back of house

also known as BOH, is known as the area or areas within or surrounding a venue which support the production and operations of that venue, including loading docks, offices, backstage, boneyards, artist lounges, and so on.