

conduit

a tube or trough – can be PVC or metal – for protecting electric wiring or channeling water; often utilized by the signage / site operations teams to hang signs on tents or other structures

