

egress

the act of removing people, vehicles, or other equipment from a given location in an orderly and secure fashion. Event examples of egress include the crowds leaving first the grounds by foot and then the parking lots in their vehicles.

Proper planning with road closures, traffic control, and pedestrian paths will ensure a quick and smooth egress.