

FOH

or “front of house” – this is known as the area where the audio and lighting consoles are located, usually at the “sweet spot” (the focal point between the left and right speakers) to give everyone the best vantage point to put on the concert. Some FOHs also have ADA platforms and/or follow spot towers.

