

guest services

in some companies, can be the department that handles everything that involves the guest experience, including front gate staffing & planning, lost & found, medical services, and information / help.