IMAG

stands for "image magnification" and it refers to the projection of video to a crowd so they can better see the performers than from the naked eye. IMAG is normally used in larger scale events and festivals where there needs to be a jumbotron / LED wall so everyone can see the stage.