

Load-out

also known as “load out”, this refers to the period after to the event or festival where all site strike occurs and the grounds are restored back to their former state. Generally speaking, load-out is faster than load-in but it can also be affected by inclement weather, lack of staff, and other factors.