

petty cash

also known as “float”, this is a set amount of cash set aside for day of show needs, like hospitality, meals, production equipment, and other items. For example, the office manager will usually give $500 in petty cash along with a ledger and zippered bank style envelope so they can properly keep track of their expenses. Float / Petty can also mean the use of debit or credit cards.