turnkey

also written "turn-key" or "turn key", is the ability to handle a project or element entirely from start to finish. A turnkey production is one where the producer will provide everything needed on their own to execute the production flawlessly.